

WRITING CENTER VIRTUAL TUTORING

We realize that tutoring is an important resource for many of our students, and we will continue to offer individual tutoring for the remainder of the semester; however, we will do so remotely. Out of an abundance of caution, we will not hold drop-in tutoring hours until further notice.

STEP

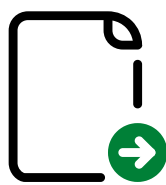

1

A student can either choose to continue with a Live Tutor via Microsoft Teams or submit their essay to the respective campus:

Uvalde: writing.centerUV@swtjc.edu

Eagle Pass: writing.centerEP@swtjc.edu

Del Rio: writing.centerDR@swtjc.edu

STEP

2

Fill out the Online Tutoring Request Form in which you articulate your concerns about a particular written assignment.

Please save the request form with your concerns to your computer.

STEP

3

Attach the online tutoring request form to your draft and submit to the respective campus email (as listed on Step 1).

- If your paper is eight (8) pages or fewer, the turnaround is 24 hours or less.
- Longer papers require more time.
- Papers must be submitted before 5:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday and before 11:00 a.m. on Friday.

For more information, see Online Tutoring Expectations

